

It's really unAmerican to give this much power to 2 or 3 companies (SBC, Comcast, and such) and make it more difficult for the independant companies to have a chance to keep their companies running. Smaller companies give better service, and provide jobs in the US rather than farming out tech support to India and other countries. Support America, support the US enconomy, create jobs, support QUALITY over quantity.